The ethanol is then dehydrated to produce ethylene which is polymerized to make the bioplastic.

After the harvest the sugarcane is brought to mills where it is crushed to produce ethanol

Klein Toys manufactures toys made of bioplastic in its German facilities

After use Klein bioplastic toys can be 100% recycled

Sugarcane is planted and cultivated in controlled areas. It is the basic raw material of the bioplastic for Klein toys

- reducing the greenhouse effect
- reducing CO² emissions
